

Spotlight

Our stories

2017 Annual Report

Download CAAP's latest annual report to see how we've been planting the seeds of philanthropy in our communities. Highlights include the Building Blocks for New Americans Fund, where we provide support to recent Syrian refugees.

More stories...

Join In

Events, Volunteer, Donate

100 Arab American Women Who Care

When: Sunday, April 29th

Where: Emile Salon, Beverly Hills

What: Women coming together to make a difference in their communities. Last year, we raised $10,000 for the 1001 Inventions exhibit at the Michigan Science Center.

National Arab American Service Day

When: Saturday, May 5th

Where: Across the country

What: The National Network of Arab American Communities' 14th Annual Service Day. Join thousands across the country participating in service projects to build stronger communities.

More ways to get involved...

---

Take Note

Grants & Scholarships

$60,000 in Student Scholarships

At the 47th ACCESS Annual Dinner, CAAP awarded students $60,000 in scholarships. Recipients included Arab American, African American, and Latino students across three universities. The scholarships were made possible by the Ebeid Family Fund and the McLennan Family Foundation.

More opportunities...

---

About CAAP

The Center for Arab American Philanthropy (CAAP), an ACCESS institution, is a national community foundation with the objective to unite and empower the Arab American community by demonstrating the impact of giving together.

---

This email was sent to marya.belanger@gmail.com
why did I get this?   unsubscribe from this list   update subscription preferences
*|LIST:ADDRESSLINE|*

